DETAILED ACTION

This is a response to the RCE paper filed on 11/12/2004. Claims 1-20 are pending and are under examination.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 2. Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim (USP 6,281,713), newly cited prior art. Figure 2 of Kim shows a reset circuit for a latch circuit (22) having bistable pair of transistors connected to a supply voltage (ground), the reset circuit comprising a first transistor (N23) connected to the supply voltage, a second transistor (N21 is diode connected transistor having drain and gate connected together) connected between said first transistor and a first port (OUTPUT) of the latch, wherein a gate terminal of said second transistor is connected to drain terminal of the second transistor at said first port, a third transistor (N22 is diode connected transistor having drain and gate connected together) connected between said first transistor and a second port (OUTPUTB) of the latch circuit, wherein the gate terminal of the third transistor is connected to a drain terminal of the third transistor at said second port as called for in claims 13-14.
  - (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2816

Claims 15 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Varadarajan et al. (USP 5,963,060), newly cited prior art. Figure 1 of Varadarajan et al. shows a comparator comprising analog input signal (in), a reference signal (Vref), digital output signal (Vout), said comparator comprising a latch circuit having a bistable pair of transistors (150, 160) coupled between a reset circuit (110) and a first supply voltage (Vdd), and a vertical latch (170, 180) coupled between said first supply voltage and a second supply voltage (Vss) and coupled to said bistable pair of transistors, said vertical latch having first transistor (170) coupled to said bistable pair of transistors and a second transistor (110) said first transistor being a first channel type (n type), said second transistor being of a second channel type (P type), said first channel type being one of a p channel type and a n channel type, said second channel type being different from said first channel type as called for in claims 15-16.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-12 and 17-20 are presently allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's 3. disclosure. Applicant's cited prior art has been considered.
